ARTICLE II
Directors

X Section 1. Number and Term: The number of Directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Directors, also known as the Board of Administration, shall be not more than three (3). Until succeeded by Directors elected as hereinafter provided, Directors need not be members; thereafter, all Directors shall be members. Within the limits above specified, the number of Directors shall be determined by the members at the annual meeting. The Directors shall be elected as hereinafter provided and each Director shall be elected to serve for the term of one (1) year, or until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify.

Section 2. Vacancy and Replacement: If the office of any Director becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, at a special meeting of Directors duly called for this purpose, shall choose a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired term in respect to which such vacancy occurred.

Section 3. Removal: Directors may be removed with or without cause by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members. No director shall continue to serve on the Board, if, during his term of office, his membership in the Corporation shall be terminated for any reason whatsoever.

Section 4. First Board of Directors: The first Board of Directors shall consist of: Baxter "Bud" Whitehurst who shall hold office and exercise all powers of the Board of Directors, until the first membership meeting, or as otherwise provided for hereinafter; provided, however, that any or all of said Directors shall be subject to replacement in the event of resignation or death as above provided. The three (3) individuals or less that are elected by the Developer shall be the Directors of the Association and shall be the sole voting members of the Corporation until such time as the unit owners other than the Developer own fifteen percent (15%) or more of the units that will be operated ultimately by the Association, at which time, the unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect not less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors of the Association.

Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association:

(a) Three years after 50 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(b) Three months after 90 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business; or

(d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business, whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 5 percent, in condominiums with fewer than 500 units, and 2 percent, in condominiums with more than 500 units, of the units in a condominium operated by the association. Following the time the developer relinquishes control of the association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration.

Within sixty (60) days after unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors of the Association, the Association shall call, and give not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than forty (40) days notice of, a meeting of the unit owners for this purpose. Such meeting may be called and the notice given by any unit owner if the Association fails to do so.

If a Developer holds units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval, in writing, by the Developer:

A. Assessment of the Developer as a unit owner for capital improvements;

B. Any action by the Association that would be detrimental to the sale of units by the Developer; provided, however, that an increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the Developer shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sale of units.

Prior to or within a reasonable time after the time that unit owners other than the Developer elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Association, such reasonable time not to exceed sixty (60) days, the Developer shall relinquish control of the Association and shall deliver to the Association all property of the unit owners and of the Association held by or controlled by the Developer, including but not limited to the following items, if applicable, as to each condominium operated by the Association:

(1) The original, a certified copy or a photocopy of the recorded Declaration of Condominium and amendments thereto; if a photocopy is provided, the same shall reflect the recording information and shall be certified by affidavit by the Developer or officer or agent of the Developer as being a true and complete copy of the actual recorded Declaration and amendments thereto; the Association's Articles of Incorporation; By-Laws; minute books and other corporation books and records of the Association, if any; and any house rules and regulations which may have been promulgated.

(2) Resignations of Officers and members of the Board of Directors who may be required to resign for reason of the requirement that the Developer relinquish control of the Association.

(3) An accounting or accountings for Association funds. The Developer shall be liable to the Association for all of the funds of the Association that are not properly expended and which were collected during the period of time that the Developer controlled the Board of Directors of the Association.

(4) Association funds or control thereof.

(5) All tangible personal property that is represented by the Developer to be part of the common elements or that is ostensibly part of the common elements, or that is property of the Association, and inventories of these properties.

(6) A copy of the plans and specifications utilized in the construction of improvements and the supplying of equipment to the condominium and for the construction and installation of all mechanical components serving the improvements and the site, with a certificate in affidavit form of the Developer or of his agent, or of an architect or engineer authorized to practice in this State that such plans and specifications represent to the best of his knowledge and belief the actual plans and specifications utilized in and about the construction and improvement of the condominium and for the construction and installation of the mechanical components serving the improvements.

(7) Insurance policies.

(8) Copies of any certificates of occupancy which may have been issued within one (1) year of the date of creation of the condominium.

(9) Any other permits issued by governmental bodies applicable to the condominium property and which are currently in force or were issued within one (1) year prior to the date upon which the unit owners other than the Developer took control of the Association.

(10) Written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers and manufacturers that are still effective.

(11) A roster of unit owners and their addresses and telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the Developer's records.

(12) Leases of the common elements, or in which the Association is lessor or lessee.

(13) Employment contracts or service contracts in which the Association is one of the contracting parties, or service contracts in which the Association or the unit owners have directly or indirectly an obligation or responsibility to pay some or all of the fee or charge of the person or persons performing the services.

(14) Other contracts in which the Association is one of the contracting parties.

Section 5. Powers: The property and business of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors, who may exercise all corporate powers not specifically prohibited by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation, or the Declaration to which these By-Laws are attached. The powers of the Board of Directors shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the following items:

A. To make and collect assessments and establish the time within which payment of same is due. Assessments shall be made against unit owners not less frequently than quarterly in amounts no less than are required to provide funds in advance for payment of all of the anticipated current operating expenses and for all of the unpaid operating expenses previously incurred.

B. To use and expend the assessment including assessment for reserves or betterments collected, to maintain, repair and/or replace any of the common elements or for such emergency repairs as may be needed to prevent damage to the common elements or to any unit.

C. To purchase the necessary equipment and tools required in the maintenance, care and preservation referred to above.

D. To enter into and upon the units when necessary and with as little inconvenience to the owner as possible in connection with the maintenance, repair or replacement of any common elements or for making emergency repairs as may be needed to prevent damage to the common elements or to any unit or units.

E. To insure and keep insured said condominium property in the manner set forth in the Declaration against loss from fire and/or other casualty, and unit owners against public liability and to purchase such other insurance as the Board of Directors may deem advisable.

F. To collect delinquent assessments by suit or otherwise, abate nuisance and enjoin or seek damages from the unit owners for violation of these By-Laws and the terms and conditions of the Declaration.

G. To contract for the management and maintenance of the condominium and to authorize the management agent to assist the Association in carrying out these powers and duties by performing such functions of the Association as preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance of the common elements. The Association shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted them by the Condominium act, including but not limited to, the making of assessments, promulgation of rules and regulations and entering into contracts on behalf of the Association.

H. To make reasonable rules and regulations for the occupancy of the condominium parcels.

Section 6. Compensation: Directors or Officers, as such, shall receive no salary or compensation for their services.

Section 7. Meetings:

A. The first meeting of each Board newly elected by the members shall be held immediately upon adjournment of the meeting at which they were elected, provided a quorum shall then be present, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. The annual meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place of the general members' meeting, and immediately after the adjournment of same.

B. Meetings of the Board shall be open to all unit owners and notices of meetings shall be posted conspicuously forty-eight (48) hours in advance for the attention of unit owners, except in an emergency.

C. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President upon five (5) days notice to each Director. Special meetings shall be called by the President or Secretary in a like manner and on like notice upon the written request of any Directors, provided notice is given in accordance with Section 7.B. hereinabove.

Section 8. Order of Business: The order of business at all meetings of the Board shall be as follows:

- A. Roll call.
- B. Reading of the Minutes of the last meeting.
- C. Consideration of communications.
- D. Resignations and elections.
- E. Report of Officers and employees.
- F. Reports of Committees.
- G. Unfinished business.
- H. Ordinal resolutions and new business.
- I. Adjournment.

Section 9. Annual Budget: The Board may adopt the annual budget. The unit owners shall be given a copy of the proposed annual budget of common expenses which shall be detailed and shall show the amounts budgeted by account and expense classifications, which shall include but not necessarily be limited to the following items: expenses for the Association and condominium; administration of the Association; management fees; maintenance, rent for recreation and other commonly used facilities; taxes upon Association property; taxes upon leased areas; insurance; security provisions; other expenses; operating capital; reservations, fees payable to the Division; expenses for unit owners; rent for the unit if subject to a lease; rent payable by the unit owner directly to the lessor under any recreation lease or lease for use of commonly used facilities, not less than thirty (30) days before the meeting held for the purpose of adopting the annual budget and also written notice of the time and place at which such meeting of the Board to consider the budget shall be held; and such meeting shall be open to unit owners.

If an adopted budget requires assessment against the unit owners in any fiscal or calendar year exceeding one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the assessments for the preceding year, the Board, upon written application of ten percent (10%) of the unit owners to the Board, shall call a special meeting of the unit owners within thirty (30) days, upon not less than ten (10) days written notice to each unit owner. At the special meeting, unit owners shall consider and enact a budget. The adoption of the budget shall require a vote of not less than a majority vote of all unit owners. The Board of Administration may propose a budget to the unit owners at a meeting of members or in writing, and if the budget or proposed budget is approved by the unit owners at the meeting or by a majority of all unit owners in writing, the budget shall be adopted. The budget shall not thereafter be re-examined by the unit owners in the manner hereinabove set forth.

In determining whether assessments exceed one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of similar assessments in prior years, any authorized provisions for reasonable reserves for repair or replacement of the condominium property, anticipated expenses by the Condominium Association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, or assessments for betterments to the condominium property shall be excluded from the computation.

However, as long as the Developer is in control of the Board of Administration, the Board shall not impose an assessment for any year greater than one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the prior fiscal or calendar year's assessment without approval of a majority of all unit owners.

Section 10. Fidelity Bond: A fidelity bond for Directors of this Association, who control or disburse funds of the Association, shall be obtained for said Directors and the Association shall bear the costs of such bonding.

ARTICLE III Officers

Section 1. Executive Officers: The executive Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors. Any two of said offices may be united in one person, except that the President shall not also be the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Corporation. If the Board so determines, there may be more than one (1) Vice-President.

Section 2. Appointive Officers: The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers and agents as it may deem necessary, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board of Directors and have such authority and perform such duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board.

Section 3. Election: The Board of Directors at its first meeting after such annual meeting of general members shall elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer, none of whom, excepting the President, need be a member of the Board.

Section 4. Term: The Officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify in their stead. Any Officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed for cause at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors.

Section 5. The President:

A. The President shall be the chief executive Officer of the Corporation; he shall preside at all meetings of the members and Directors; shall be ex officio member of all standing committees; shall have general and active management of the business of the Corporation, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect.

B. He shall execute bonds, mortgages, and other contracts requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where the same are required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors to other Officers or agents of the Corporation.

Section 6. The Secretary:

A. The Secretary shall keep the Minutes of the member meetings and the Board of Director's meetings in one or more books provided for that purpose; such Minutes shall be available for inspection by unit owners and Board members at all reasonable times.

B. He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws and as required by law.

C. He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation and shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all documents, the execution of which, on behalf of the Corporation, under its seal, is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws.

D. He shall keep a register of the post office address of each member, which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such member.

E. In general, he shall perform all duties incidental to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. The Treasurer:

A. The Treasurer shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all monies and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors, the Articles of Incorporation, and these By-Laws.

B. He shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as ordered by the Board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements and shall render to the President and Directors, at the regular meetings of the Board, or whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial conditions of the Corporation.

C. He may be required to give the Corporation a bond in a sum and with one or more sureties satisfactory to the Board, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money or other property of whatever kind in his possession belonging to the Corporation.

Section 8. Vacancies: If the office of any Director or of the President, Vice-President, Secretary of Treasurer, or one or more, become vacant by reason of death, resignation, disqualification or otherwise, the remaining Directors by a majority vote of the whole Board of Directors provided for in these By-Laws may choose a successor or successors who shall hold office for the unexpired term.

Section 9. Resignations: Any Director or other Officer may resign his office at any time, such resignation to be made in writing and to take effect from the time of its receipt by the Corporation, unless some time be fixed in the resignation, and then from that date. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be required to make it effective.

Section 10. Fidelity Bond: A fidelity bond for Officers of this Association, who control or disburse funds of the Association, shall be obtained for said Officer or Officers and the Association shall bear the cost of such bonding.

ARTICLE IV
Membership

Section 1. There shall be no stock certificates issued by this Corporation. There shall be no more than one (1) member of this Corporation for each unit submitted to condominium ownership pursuant to the DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP OF CRYSTAL LANDINGS, A CONDOMINIUM and amendments thereto.

Section 2. Transfers of membership shall be made only on the books of the Corporation, and notice of acceptance of such transferee as a member of the Corporation shall be given in writing to such transferee by the President and Secretary of the Corporation. Transferor, in such instance, shall automatically no longer be a member of the Corporation. Membership in the Corporation may be transferred only as an incident to the transfer of transferor's condominium parcel and his undivided interest in the common elements of the Condominium, and such transfers shall be subject to the procedures set forth in the Declaration.

Section 3. Voting Members: That member designated by the owner or owners, as recorded in the Public Records of Citrus County, Florida, of a vested present interest in a single condominium parcel, owning the majority interest in such single condominium parcel, the designation of whom shall be by statement filed with the Secretary of the Association, in writing, signed under oath, and who shall continue to cast the vote for all such owners of interest in a single condominium parcel until such time as another person is properly designated as the voting member by those persons or entities owning the majority interests in such single condominium parcel by a similar written, sworn statement filed with the Secretary.

An owner or owners of a single condominium parcel shall collectively be entitled to one (1) vote, which vote shall be cast by the voting member.

There shall be forty (40) voting members. At all times, there shall be one (1) voting member for each unit submitted to condominium ownership pursuant to the DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP OF CRYSTAL LANDINGS, A CONDOMINIUM, and amendments thereto. A person or entity owning more than one (1) condominium parcel may be designated as a voting member for each such condominium parcel which he or it owns. Failure by all owners of a single condominium parcel to file the aforementioned written, sworn statement with the Secretary prior to a members' meeting will result in depriving such owner of a single condominium parcel of a vote at such meeting.

A membership may be owned by more than one owner, provided that membership shall be held in the same manner as title to the unit. In the event ownership is in more than one (1) person, all of the owners of such membership shall be entitled collectively to only one (1) vote or ballot in the management of the affairs of the Corporation in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium and the vote may not be divided between plural owners of a single membership.

Section 4. In the event the owner of a condominium parcel is not a natural person, the subject entity shall designate a natural person who shall be entitled to occupy the condominium parcel, and such natural person shall be a member of the Corporation, subject to the procedures set forth in the Declaration.

ARTICLE V
Meeting of the Membership

Section 1. Definition: Unit owners shall meet at least once in each calendar year and such meeting shall be the annual meeting. The annual meeting shall be the time of the election of members of the Board of Directors whose terms have expired. The term of all the members of the Board shall expire on the date of the annual meeting, upon the election of their successors.

Section 2. Place: All meetings of the corporate membership shall be held at the office of the Corporation, or any other place as may be stated in the written notice.

Section 3. Membership List: At least ten (10) days before every election of Directors, a complete list of members entitled to vote at said election, arranged numerically by apartment units with the residence of each, shall be prepared by the Secretary. Such list shall be produced and kept for ten (10) days and throughout the election at the office of the Corporation and shall be open to examination by any member throughout such time.

X Section 4. Annual Meeting: The first annual meeting of the members of the Corporation shall be held on the third Wednesday of January, 1990.

Regular annual meetings, subsequent to 1990, shall be held on the third Wednesday of January of each succeeding year, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the next secular day following.

Section 5. Special Meetings:

A. Special meetings of the members for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called by the President and shall be called by the President or Secretary at the request, in writing, of ten percent (10%) of the members. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

B. Written notice of a special meeting of members shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 1, as set forth hereinafter.

C. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the notice thereof.

Section 6. Right to Vote: At any meeting of the members, every member having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy. Such proxy shall only be valid for such meeting or subsequent adjourned meeting thereof.

Section 7. Vote required to Transact Business: When a quorum is present at any meeting, the majority of the vote of the membership present in person or represented by written proxy shall decide any question brought before the meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of the Florida Statutes, or these By-Laws, a different vote is required, in which case, such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 8. Quorum: Fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of members of the Corporation present in person or represented by written proxy shall be requisite to and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, by these By-Laws, or by the Declaration of Condominium. No person shall be designed to hold more than five (5) proxies for any purpose unless the condominium has been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Each proxy must be executed in writing by the member of the Corporation, or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of its execution unless it shall have specified therein its duration.

Section 9. Waiver and Consent: Whenever the vote of members at a meeting is required or permitted by any provision of the Statutes, of the Articles of Incorporation or of these By-Laws, or the Declaration of Condominium, to be taken in connection with any action of the Corporation, the meeting and vote of members may be dispensed with if all of the members who have been entitled to vote upon the action if such meeting were held shall consent to such action being taken.

ARTICLE VI
Notices

Section 1. The method of calling and summoning the unit owners to assemble at meetings, including annual meetings, shall require at least fourteen (14) days written notice to each unit owner in advance of the meeting, and the posting at a conspicuous place on the condominium property of a notice of the meeting at least fourteen (14) days prior to said meeting. The notice of the annual meeting can be sent by mail to each unit owner and the post office certificate of mailing shall be retained as proof of such mailing and such mailing shall be deemed notice. The foregoing requirements as to meetings are not to be construed, however, to prevent unit owners from waiving notice of meetings or from acting by written agreement without meetings, as provided in these By-Laws, the Declaration of Condominium, or the laws of the State of Florida.

Section 2. Service of Non-Waiver: Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Statute or the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, a waiver thereof, in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereof.

ARTICLE VII
Finances

Section 1. Fiscal Year: The fiscal year shall begin the first day of January of each year. The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to change this fiscal year at any time for the convenience of the Corporation.

Section 2. Checks: All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by any two of the following Officers: President, Secretary or Treasurer, or by such Officer or Officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE VIII
Seal

The seal of the Corporation shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization, and the words "non-profit". Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, reproduced or otherwise.

ARTICLE IX
House Rules

In addition to the other provisions of these By-Laws, the following house rules and regulations, together with such additional rules and regulations as may be hereafter adopted by the Board of Directors, shall govern the use of the condominium units located on the property, and the conduct of all residents thereof:

A. The condominium units shall be used for residential purposes only.

B. Owners shall not use or permit the use of their premises in any manner which would be disturbing or be a nuisance to other owners, or in such a way as to be injurious to the reputation of the property.

C. The use of the condominium units shall be consistent with existing law and these restrictions, and so long as such does not constitute a nuisance.

D. Condominium units may not be used for business use or for any commercial use whatsoever.

E. Common elements shall not be obstructed, littered, defaced or misused in any manner.

F. No structural changes or alterations shall be made in any unit, except upon approval of the Board of Directors.

G. Parking spaces may be used in accordance with the allocations designated from time to time by the Association.

H. Owners in the walking of their dogs or cats shall use only the areas so designated as walking areas. The walking of pets shall be strictly prohibited on any other portion of the condominium property.

I. No children under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be permitted to live as permanent residents in the condominium units; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent owners from having children as visitors or guests for a limited period of time.

ARTICLE X Default

A. In the event an owner of a condominium parcel does not pay the sums, charges or assessments required to be paid to the Corporation, the Corporation, acting on its own behalf, or through the Board of Directors or manager acting on behalf of the Corporation, may foreclose the lien encumbering the condominium parcel created by nonpayment of the required monies in the same fashion as mortgage liens are foreclosed and in accordance with Section 718.116 of the Florida Statutes.

(1) The Corporation shall be entitled to the appointment of a Receiver if it so requests. The Corporation shall have the right to bid on the condominium parcel at a foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, mortgage and convey the same. In lieu of foreclosure of its lien, the Corporation may, through its Board of Directors, or manager acting in behalf of the Corporation, or in its own behalf, bring suit to recover a money judgment for sums, charges or assessments required to be paid to the Corporation without waiving its lien securing same. In any action, either to foreclose its lien or to recover a money judgment brought by or on behalf of the Corporation against a condominium parcel owner, the losing litigant shall pay the costs thereof, together with a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) If an action of foreclosure is brought against the owner of a condominium parcel for the nonpayment of monies due the Corporation and as a result thereof the interest of the said owner in and to such condominium parcel is sold, then at the time of such sale, the condominium parcel owner's membership shall be cancelled and membership shall be issued to the purchaser at the foreclosure sale.

(3) If the Corporation becomes the owner of the condominium parcel by reason of foreclosure, it shall offer said unit for sale and at such time as a sale is consummated, it shall deduct from such proceeds all sums of money due it for monthly assessments and charges, all costs incurred in the bringing of the foreclosure suit, including reasonable attorney's fees, and all expenses incurred in the resale of the condominium parcel, which shall include, but not be limited to, advertising expenses, real estate brokerage fees and expenses necessary for the repairing and refurbishing of the condominium parcel in question. All monies remaining after deducting the foregoing items of expense shall be returned to the former owner of the condominium parcel in question.

B. In the event of violation of the provisions of the enabling Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation or restrictions of these By-Laws, as the same are now or may hereafter be constituted, the Corporation, on its own behalf, may bring appropriate action to enjoin such violation or to enforce the provisions of the documents just hereinabove enumerated, or sue for damages or take all such courses of action at the same time, or for such other legal remedy it may deem appropriate.

(1) In the event legal action is brought against a condominium parcel owner, the losing litigant shall pay the other party's reasonable attorney's fee and court costs. Each owner of a condominium parcel, for himself, his heirs, successors and assigns, agrees to the foregoing provisions relating to default and abatement of nuisance, regardless of the harshness of the remedy available to the Corporation and regardless of the availability of the other equally adequate procedures.

(2) It is the intent of all owners of condominium parcels to give to the Corporation a method of procedure which will enable it at all times to operate on a business-like basis, to collect those monies due and owing it from owners of condominium parcels and to preserve each owner's right to enjoy his condominium unit free from unreasonable restraint and nuisance.

ARTICLE XI

Liability in Excess of Insurance Coverage

In any legal action in which the Association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the unit owners, the Association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all unit owners who may be exposed to the liability and they shall have the right to intervene and defend.

A copy of each insurance policy obtained by the Association shall be made available for inspection by unit owners at reasonable times.

ARTICLE XII

Registers

Section 1. The Secretary of the Corporation shall maintain a register in the corporate office showing the names and the addresses of members.
